Dear Sir,

I am very disappointed in your stand in refusing to review the Parker v. Pidgeon case. In doing this, you are forcing me to pay for homosexual marriage benefits regardless of my own personal view.

Please get back on board and support the Constitutional principles and Biblical values. I will be watching your future service to the citizens of the great state of Texas.

Thank you for your time,

Email and call Justices Nathan Hecht, Jeff Brown, Eva Guzman, Debra Lehrmann, Don Willett, Phil Johnson, Jeffrey Boyd and Paul Green and let them know how terribly disappointed you are about their refusal to review this case. Tell them that we elected them to stand up for our religious liberties and our Tenth Amendment Constitutional States' Rights, rather than caving into the homosexual political movement. We, the taxpayers, should not have to subsidize someone's immoral behavior. Let them know that you will remember this decision the next time they come up for election. Let them know that their actions have consequences.

I as a conservative republican will do everything in my power to let more people see how you are. We should not have to pay for someone else's life style. If people choose to live the life they live that is their right, but it's not your right to make us pay for them. I do not support gay and lesbian rights and I don't feel I should be force to except these things because 8 people think it is the thing to do. I voted for most of you the last election but I can assure you that I won't make that mistake again. I am truly tired of all this politically correct garbage.

Dear Judges,

I am very disappointed with your decision not to hear the Parker v. Pidgeon case.

Same sex marriage is a sin and should be against the law. You and I both know that the US and the Texas Constitution are based on the Bible and other traditional Western beliefs. These foundations are against homosexuality.

Don't blame your decision on the Obergefell decision.

The Obergefell decision did not address benefits.

Because you did not do your job,I will have to pay for their benefits.

I will do my best to insure that you no longer sit on the Texas Supreme Court.

Phil,

I am a Conservative Republican of Texas, and I am ashamed and appalled that you (a Republican as well) would so much as entertain the idea of abandoning traditional marriage and force taxpayers (me) to fund homosexual marriage benefits. You should be ashamed for not standing and supporting John Devine in opposing the homosexual political movement but instead, you cowardly joined the other Justice members in refusing to review the case of Parker v. Pidgeon. If you have a Bible, (if not, borrow one) and look up 1 Corinthians 6:9-10, 1 Timothy 1:9-10, Romans 1:26-27, "homosexual is a sin." This violates God's moral standards and is a perversion of the Natural law written in the Bible; know as the Ten Commandments, over 1000 years ago. Also, while you have your Bible out, read Isaiah 3:9, Deuteronomy 29:23, Jeremiah 23:14, Amos 4:11, Luke 17:28-30, Romans 1:18-32 and 2 Peter 2:6-9.) Homosexuality is the ultimate sexual perversion which raises God's wrath and which destroys any society that embraces it. Look at Greece, Rome and Germany for allowing homosexuality to be tolerated and embraced. I will not support any of you for tolerating, promoting and practicing this perversion. I hope and pray you will rethink your decision!

Nancy and I would strongly urge you to hear this case! Please do not shirk your responsibility on this VERY controversial issue. It is bad enough we have been forced through judicial activism to recognize their abhorrent behavior. We shouldn't be forced to pay for it as taxpayers against our religious beliefs. If you do believe that is the way it should be then let US decide by debate and vote. Speaking of votes...we feel so strongly about this issue that it will decide directly whether or not you ever get our vote again.

I strongly encourage you to grant a motion for a rehearing on Parker vs Pidgeon, Mr. Johnson.

I was so disappointed in your vote especially as you are a Republican, and have the same name as my engineer husband.

When I voted for you, I thought that you would uphold the Republican Platform to protect the family unit for my children. Obviously, that was a correctable mistake on my part.

Decisions do have consequences. Hopefully, you will reconsider your decision and vote for moral correctness not political correctness. I do know that it is difficult to be in the minority, but it does indicate our strength to vote our conscience and support the Constitution. I experienced that repeatedly in the classroom. Difficult times call for difficult decisions, so please rethink your decision.

I resent the strong arming of the LGBT community forcing an agenda on us that threatens our freedoms of expression opinion and the right to designate where we want our tax payer funding to go. I am deeply disappointed you have legislated from the bench deciding because the Supreme court decided same sex marriage as a right you have taken it further in regards to legitimizing spousal benefits . So I suppose now I can define spousal benefits any way I want and expect funding for many spouses as I wish. This decision was cowardly and wrong showing a disregard for the majority will of the people of Texas that should be expressed through the legislature not the bench! Dear Texas Justices,

I am sorely disappointed by your recent refusal to hear the case Parker v. Pidgeon on appeal, thus choosing to abandon traditional marriage and force taxpayers to fund homosexual marriage benefits. Only the legislature has the power of the purse, not the courts, and the Obergefell decision "concerned marriage, not an Equal Protection challenge...and not spousal employment benefits."

Your moral compromise to God's biblical standard will be judged by Him, not by man. After all, you are appointed to your positions by Him who is supremely sovereign. And you are accountable to Him for your actions.

As I voted on judges etc during the last election, I felt compelled to vote on nearly all Republican choices since I believed that they have the same values as I. However, with this latest stand, "or lack thereof", by eight of the nine justices on the Texas Supreme Court concerning the hearing of "Parker vs Pidgeon" and the fact that these eight justices did not have the intestinal fortitude to stand up for the values that the majority of Texans uphold, I will look hard at the character and intent of future elections of judges rather than their political party. Apparently, the Republicans (perhaps nationwide) are too fearful of political correctness rather than what is actually the "right

I agree with Justice Devine, the one justice who had the courage to stand for God and the people of Texas. Yes, because the US Supreme Court is liberal and most of those members have lost their morals or never had them, homosexual marriage is legal in the US and wrongly has to be recognized in the States.

But, you didn't have to fold to grant financial and other benefits to homosexuals. This will help to hasten the destruction of rights of Texas business owners and cost millions and eventually trillions of business and taxpayer dollars.

Meanwhile, those of us on the National Guard don't get travel pay, lodging pay for our monthly drill, or our promised continuing education funds. We swore to uphold the Constitutions of the US and Texas. You all have acted, by inaction, to undermine our laws which come from God's laws.

I supported and voted for most of you. That is over. I used to vote straight ticket. I certainly will never vote for a democrat, but I will only be voting for people in the GOP at the State and federal level, who deserve my vote. I have served for 25+ years supporting the US and Texas. My vote is important and valuable.

Great work in helping to rid Texas of its Christian values and affirming that political correctness still trumps moral principles in the the state's political arena.

It is a very sad day for me to see Texans joining the rest of the country in selling out to the LGBT, which is exactly what the Texas Supreme Court did with the September 2nd refusal to hear Parker v. Pidgeon. Sorry to inform you that God's Holy Bible has stood the test of time. It is inviolate, unyielding, unchanging and rock solid, unlike the fickle humans who bend to every ill wind that blows. The precepts of the Bible have not and will not change, and neither will the judgement of God on all who break them.

I am deeply disappointed in the Texas Supreme court's lack of courage to take a righteous stand.

I am amazed and disgusted that you voted to require the taxpayers to fund homosexual activity. It is an affront to all that is good and moral. Why should I ever vote for you again? If you can vote for such crap, then I need to vote you out of office. Can't you understand that just because some other misguided court says we have to allow gays to be called "married", that does not mean we have to pay for it any more than voting to allow mass murder of unborn innocent babies requires us to pay for those abortions.

Benefits should not be payed to homosexual partners. They can continue, for now, to pretend they are "married" and use that "married" description. But you seriously need to reconsider your ruling that says we have to fund such behaviors. They add nothing to society being called married than they add being called fornicators. The whole point for having benefits for "married" people was to help ensure they produce offspring and thus perpetuate the human race. Just giving benefits so they can have perverted sex is a sad way to run a government and a people.

Beyond that, the legislature should be making laws regarding movements of monies, not judges. Quit legislating from the bench!

I imagine you are counting on no one paying attention to the judgements you make, but we the people really do pay attention and do care. Correct your course or be voted out. Just because you are republican and say you are conservative does not mean you have carte blanche to do liberal, unwise judgements.

Dear Justices,

I urge you to reconsider your decision on this important case and grant a motion for rehearing the lawsuit, Parker v. Pidgeon.

I assume you may not have realized that a majority of us who you represent are in favor of keeping marriage the way God created it. We expect our elected representatives and judges to follow the law (both God's and government's) rather than changing it.

It's difficult to stand up for what is right and what you believe in. When challenged about homosexuals not having same rights as legally married couples, I always think of various things people might want to change just because they desire. For illustration, I prefer NOT to stop when light turns yellow or I want to drive 80 miles an hour because those are things I'm comfortable with—things I like to do and can hardly resist. So should we change the laws to accommodate my DESIRES? Of course not!

Likewise, people who choose the homosexual lifestyle should not demand we change the definition of marriage and our laws to accommodate their desires. There is no medical proof that homosexuality is a medical condition so that should not be considered when looking at changing our laws governing marriage.

I look forward to your responses and to your reconsidering this key case.

Thank you,

Have you found it difficult speaking with someone about Jesus when they don't want to hear what you're sharing? It happens to me all the time! Speaking with others about Jesus can be difficult it's like speaking a language someone can't understand. The thing is I understand. I see they are oblivious to Jesus. People can get hostile and may even avoid you. We learn how God gives power to stand and speak for Him. Revelation 10 and 11 we learn of the highlight of God's people who are called and given power to speak for Him in a hostile world. How will you accept God's power to stand and speak to others until He comes revealing a new life with Him forever? It is God, the Creator of the universe who tells us marriage is between a man and a woman. What are you doing? Do you not see the importance of this? I am appalled at seeing people I voted for to stoup so low at to allow evil to take hold of so many! Does doing this make any sense at all? I am sorry but wrong is wrong! Men are NOT to marry men just like woman are not to marry other woman. Please get back to morals. Sadly our country is running away from them! We, who call ourselves Christian must not fear speaking about this wrong! Please reconsider voting against something that is so ungodly as allowing this to warp the minds of our next generation. Do the hard thing! Let's take America back and begin with her morals! Please stand up and speak for the Creator of the universe and all that is in it! Yes, we should love one another but sex is NOT love. Sex is between a man and a woman. What lies ahead for America is difficult to predict but shouldn't we heed the ominous warning? Or will we just ignore the signs and reap the consequences? Sincerely, Debbie G.

If you do not choose to read Revelation in the Bible please consider reading, Red Sky in the Morning (How you can help prevent America's gathering storms) by Bell Bright and John Damoose I promise you it is worth the time to read! Subject: Your traditional marriage vote

We're are very disappointed in your vote concerning traditional marriage. Bending to our changing culture instead of upholding traditional marriage values shows that you are not adjudicating according to God's design nor our 10th amendment to our constitution!

Rest assured your failures will not be forgotten!

Your support for this is disgusting and certainly not a view held by most Texans

Shame on you!
